2. THE PROBLEM

Ask your favourite fast food chain:

"When was this chicken cut?"

Most can't answer. We can: today.

WHY FAST FOOD IS ALWAYS OLD FOOD?

And why is fried chicken always American? And why does it always come with a bottle of sugar water?

3. OUR ANSWER (Freshness)

Cut. Marinated. Cooked. Eaten. Same day.

No frozen stock. No "cut/frozen/chilled yesterday." Fast food can be fresh food.

Waking up Lost Drinks from our roots.

7 Sauces to choose from.

4. MENU

The Bird

- Chettinad Fried Chicken: crisp outside, fiery spice inside

- [Bucket / Boneless / Wings / Burger] 7 sauces to choose from

The Fizz

- Panag: jaggery, lemon, cardamom, dry ginger, pepper
- Fizz Panag: same, topped with soda you pour yourself

Sides: [add yours]

Prices from ₹[xx]

5. WHY CHOOSE US

Same-day fresh: Chicken and veg are never stored overnight.

- Spice with roots: Chettinad masalas, not copied American coating.
Panag, not sugar water: 5 ingredients. You can read all of them.
- No preservatives. No nonsense.
- Packed to stay crisp: Fizz stays separate, so it stays fizzy.

6. THE PANAG STORY

Old Tamil roots. Modern rebels.

A small bottle of cola can hold 6+ teaspoons of sugar. Ours has:

Jaggery · Lemon · Cardamom · Dry ginger · Pepper

Plus soda or water. That's it. Nothing else, truly.
